

Barbara K. Sterbank received her music education from Alverno College, Ursuline College, Cleveland State University, and Kent State University. She has been the Vocal Music Director at Brunswick High School and Brush High School for 15 years as well as Chairperson of the Vocal Music Department for South Euclid-Lyndhurst Schools. During this time over 3,000 students studied choral music under her tutelage, many going on to professional careers in the entertainment field. The award-winning show choirs of Brunswick and Brush High School have appeared at the Ohio Music Educators Association Annual Conference in Columbus, OH, the National School Board Association's Annual Conference in San Diego, CA, national competitions in St. Louis and Branson, MO. Disney World, Orlando, FL, Severance Music Hall with Broadway legend, Melba Moore, and local TV stations.

Ms. Sterbank was the Founding Director of Selrec Singers Community Chorus and has been Music Director/organist at several area churches. She has also served as Music Director/Vocal Coach for area community theatres. She is a member of Phi Alpha Sigma Phi Beta Fraternity and maintains membership in Ohio Music Education Association, American Orff-Schulwerk Association. She has also served on the Board of Directors for the Ohio Choral Director's Association as Northeast Ohio Area representative and Show Choir/Jazz Choir Chairperson. She has also taught at the elementary level.

Ms. Sterbank has served as an adjudicator in the Ohio area sharing insights and ideas with students from all over the US.

References: R.D. Mathey, Professor, Bowling Green State University

Craig Johnson, Director of Choral Activities, Otterbein College of Ohio

C.M. Shearer, Director of Choral Activities, Kent State University

Robert Reich, President, Vanguard Tour Service, Lansing, Illinois

CONTACT INFORMATION:

312 Nottingham Road, Williamsburg, VA 23185

e mail: bsterbank@gmail.com/ 216-832-6024 cell