

DAVID LEGG - BIO

David Legg holds a Bachelors of Music Education degree from Liberty University as well as a Masters of Arts in Musical Theatre Performance from New York University. David taught in the public school system for eleven years where his choirs won numerous awards on both the state and national level. During his time as an educator Mr. Legg instructed at the secondary and collegiate levels, received several honors for excellence in teaching and was the chairman of the West Virginia Music Educators State Show Choir Festival. He currently works as a composer/arranger/choreographer/show consultant and choral clinician, assisting choirs throughout the Midwest and Eastern United States.

While at New York University David worked with a variety of professionals from the Broadway community and had the unique opportunity to perform in events at Carnegie Hall and in ceremonies honoring Steven Spielberg and Robert DiNero. Some other performing credits include: My Fair Lady; Mame; Fiddler on the Roof; Starting Here, Starting Now; How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying; and a concert version of South Pacific with Brian Stokes Mitchell.

Mr. Legg has acted as the musical director for productions presented by the Charleston Light Opera Guild, Liberty University, Fee/Hedrick Family Entertainment and Norwegian Cruise Lines. He recently composed the music for a new faith-based musical entitled The Miracle being performed at The Miracle Theater in Pigeon Forge, Tennessee.
