

Joe Foltz is an active arranger on the show choir circuit with clients in California, Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, Mississippi, and Ohio at both the middle school and high school levels. Many of his clients have placed at some of highest-ranking competitions on the circuit. He has experience creating choral arrangements to specifically meet your group's needs and abilities, at all age levels. A vocalist, pianist, and percussionist, Joe has experience from a performance standpoint, too. An alumni of Wheaton Warrenville South High School's "The Classics", he also has an extensive background as a performer on the show choir stage and in theatre, performing in musicals such as "Footloose", "Thoroughly Modern Millie", "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat", "Bye Bye Birdie", and "Fiddler On The Roof". He is fortunate enough to have recommendations from many experienced show choir and choral professionals. He will be a student at Millikin University in Decatur, Illinois in the fall to pursue a degree in Music Education.
