

Ron Morgan - Bio

Ron Morgan was in the original Broadway Cast of “Starlight Express” and “Meet Me in St. Louis”. He has performed and/or choreographed in over 15 countries around the world. Ron began his performing career in the “All American College Singers” in Disneyland. New York production work includes industrial trade shows, cruise ships and other events. He choreographed the Indianapolis Colts Cheerleaders for seven seasons, NBA half time shows, parade units for Disney and continues to choreograph for the Indiana Pacemates Halftime Shows. Ron has been a clinician for Show Choir Camps of America and directs the Rivars, Inc. Summer Style Shows. Ron has received numerous awards for his work with show choirs including choreographer for the 2007 & 2008 Indiana State Show Choir Mixed & Women’s Champions, the Carmel High School Ambassadors & Accents. Mr. Morgan currently directs and choreographs for Beef and Boards Dinner Theatre and he is the director of Performer's Edge Dance Theatre in Carmel, Indiana.